Give attendance to DOCTRINE /
TEACHING – Marcus Yoder

Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, to teaching. 1 Timothy 4:13

It was to be Timothy's constant practice to devote himself to doctrine, the systematic teaching of the principles of the Word. We too, like Timothy, must continue teaching doctrine clearly and effectively to maintain biblical truth and practice in our times. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Timothy 4:16

Be thou an EXAMPLE / MODEL
– John Coblentz

Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. 1 Timothy 4:12

Using the right words properly is of great importance, but "it's easier said than done!" The preacher himself walking in love, faith and purity as an example is the best validation of his preaching. Because talk becomes hollow if it lacks practice, Paul instructs Timothy to "give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all." 1 Timothy 4:15

Give attendance to READING /
HERMENEUTICS – Marcus Yoder

Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture.

1 Timothy 4:13 ESV

The minister of the gospel must read properly to be prepared for correct interpretation of the Scriptures and Biblical exegesis. Paul encourages Timothy, “Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.”

Give attendance to EXHORTATION /
PREACHING – Marcus Yoder

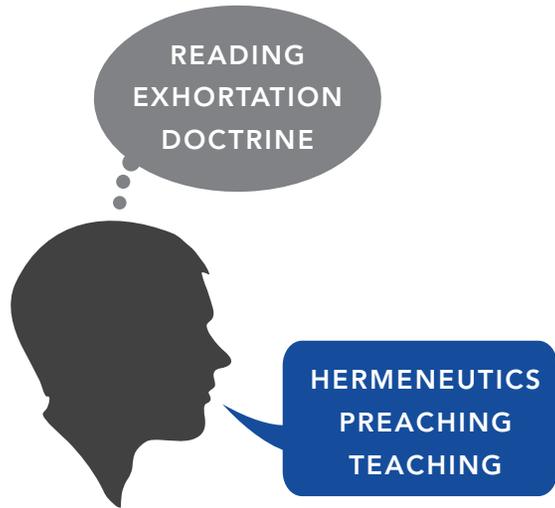

*Until I come, devote yourself to
the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation. 1 Timothy 4:13*

Much of exhortation is done through preaching the Word, often with passionate entreaty and encouragement. While the Spirit changes hearts, how a sermon is prepared and delivered facilitates His work through our preaching. Behind having the right words ready at any time lies proper preparation. I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

We are only able to give others what we ourselves have received. To feed our flocks, it is all-important that we first feed ourselves through reading and hearing the Word preached and taught, lest our own reservoirs become depleted or stagnant. As we feed our own souls so others can be fed, proper input is imperative to achieve correct output in hermeneutics, preaching, teaching and Godly living.
